Hey!

I'm late to the party, but better late than never!

Welcome to the GYE family!

It seems like you have already found the care, concern, and warmth of this wonderful place.

I cannot agree more with what amevakesh wrote in two places.

A positive attitude of "I've got this" is crucial. Have you considered reading the book "The Battle of the Generation"? It is very helpful in developing a positive attitude and enjoyable experience in winning battles.

Also, if you are ready, reaching out to talk to live people is a tremendous game changer. Calling HHM changed my life.

If you can build up the courage, it can change your life forever. For the good.

Thanks amevakesh and proudyungerman for the messages! I agree a positive attitude is important! I looked at some information on "The Battle of the Generation" yesterday. I may consider getting it.

Posting day 10 - doing well.
