

Journey x Destination

Posted by thegrave - 20 Jan 2025 20:37

Welcome! This page is where I'm going to be checking in to give myself some responsibility for the initial start of my 90 day journey and beyond. Feel free to comment and dish out advice "I'm all ears." looking forward to achieving 90 days with everyone!

Just to clarify. Gm in music means G minor which is not in the C major scale (and a difficult chord to play for a beginner). I imagine you mean G Major which is the dominant 5th of the C major scale which is written as G (not Gm)

I definitely need tips i just started a few weeks ago. cord transitions are the hardest especially C to Gm when using the last 3 fingers thx!

This definitely calls for a post from Cords (Helllloooooooww!!!)

You gotta blast the Monsta Horn to wake him up ok, so far things have been going well yesterday I watched a movie for the first time in like 5 months. Afterwards I remembered why I don't watch movies. you know that empty feeling afterward? were all you want to do is just eat a lot of junk food yeah, one of those.

Either way b"h a friend offered to go on a run with me immediately after which was nice and really helped!

Also i didn't really want to start another count but my courser was over the button and i accidentally clicked it L'chaim to 14 days!

Hey Rabbeinu,

First off you are a grand tzadik! Your post is really important, remember just because you have completely and utterly destroyed the addiction to p&m doesn't mean you have killed off your yetzer hora for normal things. I'm afraid when it comes to normal desires you do have to do some good old fashioned fighting with him. I hope no-one will give me too much backlash for saying this but, counting days works for some people and for others it is pointless.... Since you've totally removed the need for p&m I cant see why you would want to count... again no disrespect to people that do find this a benefit. But The Grave knows where I'm coming from Shalom everyone! I'm back for another wack at sobriety!

A quick update: about a month ago i found a way to get around my filter and while it was very inconvenient to take care of it at the time mostly because it meant deleting some very necessary apps, one thing led to another and i had multiple falls.

I was on vacation at he time so I let things be.

when I got back bain hazmanim started which is a challenge of its self and I had some ups and downs a few days here and there.

The main thing is to get back on track and hopefully make some solid ground in reaching my goals. anywho glad to be back and give y'all an update on my progress.
