

Let's give it a shot

Posted by sytv2002 - 11 Mar 2025 17:01

Hey everyone. I'm going to try something new. I will commit to commenting on here every day for 90 days. I've already fallen today so starting tomorrow will be day 1. Do I think I can get to 90 days clean? Not really no. Not at all actually. But let's see what happens. But win or lose, I'll give a daily update. Would love all to join me.

I recall as a single guy those long Shabbos afternoons being really boring and lonely. Not sure if that's your situation but if similar I can see how might be a trigger.

Day 61 posting... day 1 clean...

thank you both! I wouldn't say I had a strong feeling of loneliness, although I'm sure with shidduchim being so dry for me right now it played a part. But it was more of a sense that I've been fighting that urge since Thursday night and was on day 3 clean. I just didn't have the resolve to fight any longer. Also the YH told me that it's better to fall while it's still shabbos because then I won't watch P. That was the last straw as I'm really mainly trying to beat P. Bh

I'm almost 2 weeks clean from P.

Have you tried F2F or BOTG? This is really a difficult fight and I envy your schar but still sometimes reframing the struggle can help.

Coming on again today for accountability and stam to vent. I'm so sad. And angry with myself. My phone was left unfiltered today by accident and I could have gotten it blocked again, but I didn't. The YH convinced me I was strong enough and it wasn't urgent. But it was. I should've had known. My porn clean streak is over. I've had this challenge before, where I've had easy access to the depths of the internet, and I resisted and had my phone restrictions put back on. I just couldn't do it this time. I could have. But I didn't. I don't know. I should have for sure. I regret not having it done. Maybe it's because I never really felt good about myself for re restricting before. So now I kinda told myself it's whatever. But now it stings. All this because I wanted to give tzedakah and I couldn't without unblocking my phone for a few minutes. And then it glitches and doesn't re restrict even though it was set to that setting. It was so clear and obvious a challenge from Hashem, and I failed miserably. And of course now I feel like my shidduch would have came if I resisted, and now that I fell, it won't. At least not for a while.

If you're still reading, on a scale of 1-10. How crazy do I sound?

I think many of us have been there again and again and again. I think there's a special kind of low frustration tolerance that's associated with this struggle.
