I have struggled my whole life. not with extreme addiction but always was tempted to peek into books in drug stores or magazine stands, i never bought anything but the peeking and looking was a terrible experience. When i heard of the internet and its dangers it only made me curious. When I got internet The dam burst. Again, I never downloaded any thing but whatever was free i would look at and I learnt a lot of disgusting things. I tried Covenant Eyes and it helps but i lie to my partner that is was one of my workers etc. there have always been ups and downs in my struggle. Recently my son brought home a book about shmiras enaim and I read it and got a lot of chizuk. Then I discovered this site. So, with both things together and covenant eyes I am pretty clean now and don't even feel the pull. of course one is never free and can always fall but right now i feel no urge to click on to any thing bad. I have subscribed to the chizuk line that u email and i read it every day. you bring down amazing things. yasher koach

I was expecting berdichev to mix in here in his inimitable style. I like what he is saying that putting in the filter is the tshuva and ykv explained that a geder is tshuva, great. But, I disagree that the subway is boish eishah, for me the computer is the nisayon. as posted before, when i am weak by the computer than i weaken all over, but oish eishah is the computer, for me at least. thank you all for your thoughts, they give me much chizuk.

rashkebhag am I soo pedictable?

this memrah of the suway was said 50 years ago!! by heilige Rebbes who saw a world in Europe and then one in America

I have abetter question for you and I'm sure the answer will hurt me.And I am sure there are different answers for different people here is the question is not having a filter on the computer considered IKKA DARKA ACHRINI??

Please be easy on me and tell me the truth even if it hurts .at the time I don't have a filter because of many reasons pertaining to my business and my network.

If I am a RASH tell me I am a big boy I will have to deal with it .I will speak to my RAv and to my computer technician.

AM I A RASHA??

For you, it might not be "Ika Darka Achrina." But be careful!

A few posts are still mentioning the idea of the teshuvah "being accepted". I don't know about you, but Yaakov's post above was quite clear. Even a partial teshuva is accepted. It is the mitzvah of teshuva. Is it complete? No. But I doubt I have ever done the mizvah of tzitzis completely, for example, either! In fact, RMBM writes that Hashem gave us SO many mitzvos in order that eventually we'd do at least ONE of them right (on "Yagdil Torah vyaadir"). I won't be a perfectionist, bedavka in the mitzva of teshuva. It'd just be me putting my spiritual growth and sobriety on hold again. I did that all the years I acted out and don't want to go back there again.

Yes, the teshuva is accepted. Is it gemura? Probably not yet. I'll gladly trade the "gemura" for an honest relationship with my Tatte in himmel today and not worry about tomorrow. Love to you all!

PS. The original Bardichever would probably not have worried about whether he was a tzddik or a rasha and just kept his focus on doing Hashem's will for him. The one with the small "b" can do tha same. A simple psak from a rov may be a good idea here, though, just to get it over with...

berdichev, I mamash can't be Masig how you can exist without a filter, do you at least have Covenant Eyes with a sponsor who you can be honest with? than you don't need a filter and yet whatever you do is reported to your sponsor and that takes away most of the Nisayon

I had to check in before I leave.

"b"ardichev

If you have covenant eyes then I pasken that you definatly "Not" a Rasha.

In some cases it works better then a filter, because filters if you figure out ways around it your still in danger but a sponsor watching you cant be gotten around.

I have covenant eyes with the filter.

they have a great filter cost almost nothing & doesn't slow down anything.

Excited

I agree with Efshar Letaken. How many Reshaim would consent to have their Internet access monitored? An ACLU card-carrying Rasha would view that as an invasion of his privacy.

berdichev, you did it again, that chassidishe vort is a good key to remind one what he has to do. in case he sees something he just has to say to himself: samach eyin etc. i just want to anounce to my freinds that after i installed a filter and threw out the password things were easier. CE wasn't working for me because i couldn't tell my sponsor that i have a problem. so, it did limit my access but i would sneak a peek here and there and he wouldn't suspect it was me. with a filter and some resolve not to get around it it's been OK. But there was one catch, I was attached to youtube for all the kosher things there but there were always bad links that caused me difficulty. today i blocked it out. there is Frumtube for kosher entertainment. It's a big victory for me as it took some courage to do it.

Is frumtube 100% kosher? If yes, I should get it up on the kosher isle... Tell me about it please... (I have a whitelist filter and can't access anything without specifically having the company open it for me after checking...)
