I have struggled my whole life. not with extreme addiction but always was tempted to peek into books in drug stores or magazine stands, i never bought anything but the peeking and looking was a terrible experience. When i heard of the internet and its dangers it only made me curious. When I got internet The dam burst. Again, I never downloaded any thing but whatever was free i would look at and I learnt a lot of disgusting things. I tried Covenant Eyes and it helps but i lie to my partner that is was one of my workers etc. there have always been ups and downs in my struggle. Recently my son brought home a book about shmiras enaim and I read it and got a lot of chizuk. Then I discovered this site. So, with both things together and covenant eyes I am pretty clean now and don't even feel the pull. of course one is never free and can always fall but right now i feel no urge to click on to any thing bad. I have subscribed to the chizuk line that u email and i read it every day. you bring down amazing things. yasher koach

my name was picked as a lashon saginahor. here i am, working on myself to avoid all the filth that is out there calling myself RASHKEBEHAG. I Know i am not at all a rosh kol bnei hagolo but i feel tht a little irony would help me out. when one is in a tzara the best thing is a little humor. that's what I admire in B.D. Chev. He puts the humor into our work.

Why does the berdichever stick to Woodford? I think it stands for "old Williamsburgh" that's my favorite!
