I have struggled my whole life. not with extreme addiction but always was tempted to peek into books in drug stores or magazine stands, i never bought anything but the peeking and looking was a terrible experience. When i heard of the internet and its dangers it only made me curious. When I got internet The dam burst. Again, I never downloaded any thing but whatever was free i would look at and I learnt a lot of disgusting things. I tried Covenant Eyes and it helps but i lie to my partner that is was one of my workers etc. there have always been ups and downs in my struggle. Recently my son brought home a book about shmiras enaim and I read it and got a lot of chizuk. Then I discovered this site. So, with both things together and covenant eyes I am pretty clean now and don't even feel the pull. of course one is never free and can always fall but right now i feel no urge to click on to any thing bad. I have subscribed to the chizuk line that u email and i read it every day. you bring down amazing things. yasher koach

Let me say this, when I got into this i was in for serious stuff, after all purity is a very serious matter and i couldn't understand where was the place for humor, I checked other threads and was shocked to read all the banter going on. Now that this topic has turned this way i am beginnining to understand as i fight the baal dovor. This is making us a club and the club is made up of warriors. By sharing our stories and our jokes we bond together and fight together. It's like serving tikkun for our neshamos while we are alive. so drink l'chaim on your woodford or old williamsburgh and let's enjoy life adn our victories over the baal dovor.

Rashke, the only jokes that can get me to laugh are the jokes of my holy fellow warriors. Now you understand why.

first of all I might not be by my computer tomorrow so I am reporting another clean week b'ezras Hashem. Guard, please make the cheshbon for me, thank you.

boruch hashem , the computer was always a trigger for me, when I would sit down in front of it by habit I would think, what can I search for?. Now, when I sit down, I think, let's see, what are my fellow warriors up to? this completely distracts me from bad thoughts and I know that I can't let my friends down with another fall.

I guess I really should visit other threads more often to see what I can add there. Which topic does anyone suggest I visit? There are so many I can't spend so much time checking them all out.

Dear Rashkebehag, Keep up the good work. You are giving Hashem great pleasure!

I am reporting another clean week b'ezras Hashem. Guard, please make the cheshbon for me, thank you.

No more need for ME to make the cheshbon! The "Wall of Honor" does it FOR you! We created a new "automated" 90 Day Wall of Honor chart to make it easier for everyone (it is still under construction, but it is already functional).

From now on, you can update yourself manually. The chart automatically keeps track of how many days you are clean and what Level you are on, each time you update.

Here are the RULES for the new chart:

- You must update yourself at least once a week.
- If you do not update yourself for over a week, your name becomes RED.
- If you do not update for two weeks, your name falls off the chart.

(Even if you fall off the chart, your name remains in our database, so you can choose to go back on the chart by logging in with your username and password and pressing "edit profile" and then selecting "Put me on the chart").

To update yourself, click here to Login.

Type in your username: Rashkebehag

The password for everyone on the chart is currently: GYE

(you can change your password by clicking "edit your profile" at the bottom)

To update the chart, choose "Still Clean" and then press "Update Chart"

We hope you enjoy this new feature. It is one of many new features that we are working on.

Please send us any remarks about the new system, or if you think something should be different or that we should add/change anything.

Keep strong!
