

I'm trying the 90 day thing again...

Hi guys,

It's me again. The last couple weeks have been really really bad. I just installed K9 on my primary computer, and I'm going to give the password away ASAP. I'd like to try counting the days again, because even though this week was great in every other way (making the days count), I still had trouble with the internet and I just can't control myself. I need to get some distance between myself and the addiction so that I can get back to where I was a few months ago. Argggggg this is SO SO SO depressing!!! Oh well, I'm not gonna quit (at least not yet) even though it's very tempting to. I don't feel any hope at all, even though I was given so much

I hope to see some success again soon...

@ imtrying, I'm not sure what you mean by "no presentation"

All right guys, I finally did it. After installing K9 almost a week and a half ago and making sure it doesn't block anything I need access to on my laptop (I didn't touch the filter during this trial run; if it blocked it I didn't go to it) or interfere in any way with what I need to do, I had NOYA change the password and the administrator email address. I realize that the filter is just a helpful tool and not the real solution (especially because I'm sure I can get around it fairly easily, although I have not looked up how to do it and do not intend to); I'm continuing to work on myself in the hopes that (hopefully sooner rather than later) I will get "there," wherever that is...

So that's it! I've got almost a week and a half clean and I hope to report back soon with more. I've got plenty to keep me busy B"H and I'm hoping to gather some steam as we head towards the holiday of inebriation (i.e. pour 'em). Keep it up all you guys (and guests, what are you waiting for ??? ) :D :D

Anon,

Thanx for being part of the crew. It's gonna be greta getting to know you more and more. Don't be bashful, speak up in the DC Calls, you've got a LOT to offer.

Be Cool, Jewel, and have a GREAT SHABBOS!!

Steve

MAYDAY MAYDAY MAYDAY

This is your captain speaking. I do believe we are going down! Prepare for impact!

All right guys. I'm here for some real honesty.

This past few days has been brutal. I'm in a tailspin and completely out of control. I'd like to stabilize this craft again so I can continue onward. I feel like I've lost everything I've gained since I joined this site about a year and a half ago. That little guy in my head is running around freely again. I don't have any idea what to do, and I don't feel like giving up and just resigning myself to acting this way, even though I know many people, including many of those around me, are doing just that. I don't want to live my life "only" looking at this sh** occasionally, even if it stayed right there and I never did anything worse than that or anything illegal or whatnot, and I'm sure there are plenty of people who are able to do that. But I don't want to be one of them. I hope some of you have something helpful to say, but even if nobody responds, at least I've gotten this out of my brain and written it out. Cya later,

Ano

Oh Anon,

Give me a big hug. I need a hug anyway and I think you do too.

This is tough, no?
