

Chazak Amenu's climb

Posted by Chazak Amenu - 28 Feb 2010 02:09

I am an orthodox 14(turn 15 march 30) years old who home schools, i have come to the conclusion myself that homeschooling has nothing to do with my addiction because I don't have time to view porn during school hours do to homework. I first saw porn when I was nearing the end of 6th grade. I saw it accidentally while doing a book report for class. The character in the book was also the name of the porn star and pictures of her popped up. The first time i saw it I immediately closed down but i was curious and had just hit puberty so i opened it up again and looked. I did not know what s-x was at the time and only looked at nude pictures for a while but then I began looking for videos and could not find any for a while. I contented myself with opening multiple tabs at time viewing hundreds of non clothed females. One day I downloaded a virus thereby forcing my dad to buy a new computer. While at the store he bought me a laptop which until recently I never used because I did not want to betray my parents trust further. I found out the filters password and used it. I recently changed the password so I don't know it but no one knows it so hopefully that does not become a problem. There are still two other computers without filters. No one knows about my addiction not even my twin brother. I don't feel clean and I feel like I need to go to the Mikvah but I don't know how to go by asking without people becoming suspicious. I feel really bad because I have a slight break before learning Gemmara and a few times I have watched porn right before learning. I hope I can stop the addiction early in my life and continue to become a good Jew!

Reality is really not that bad a thing to get to really know well.....and we can even develop a crush on it. Really.

And shouldn't we? If we do not, what does that say about us?

Haha!

Food for thought.

Enjoy it with chulent.

yeah i never really thought about it that way. i suppose it is really much more healthy to crush over a girl who has an attractive personality and appearance than a girl who i have never met before on the internet. I know i should limit how much i think of a girl (the crush IS wearing off by the way. I am feeling more like i would like to meet AGAIN so i could get to know her better and she could know me better. because obviously what i was feeling was based on maybe a 20 min conversation) because there is nothing i can do about the way I feel as an orthodox Jew and therefore i am pretty much wasting my time because chances are I will never see her again and even if i do the best i can do is to be friendly and polite because I cant really express my feelings. sheesh the mind of a hormonal 16 year old. confusing times. I am glad to notice though that i am emotionally and physically attracted to nice jewish orthodox girls who dress modestly. rather than girls who don't.

Of all the days I have ever been sober and possibly ever will be sober iy"H, the best day of all, by far, to be sober, was always today.

Not just a cute-ism.
