

Bruce's Battle

Posted by BruceWayne - 17 Jun 2009 14:30

OK guys, it took me a little while but I'm finally up on this part of the forum. Most of you probably know who I am by now, so I won't repeat my story. You can find that and a bunch of other stuff at my original thread here: rehab-my-site.com/guardureyes/forum/index.php?topic=503.0

I will be posting my progress towards 90 clean days almost every day here. Updates will be right before I go to sleep, once the day's victory is secure, or the next morning.

This thread is really for myself. I don't care if no one reads it. It's here to keep me accountable and to help me get there.

So far I have been clean for 4 days. Today will hopefully be number 5.

May Hashem grant you whatever the heck it is that you need to stop counting the days at all,
both consciously and subconsciously, b'gilgul zeh ub'gilgul acher, bein b'shogeig, bein b'meizid, etc.....

While He is busy doing that, may He also grant you and all of us whatever it is that we need to start making our days count.

Thats a nice wallpaper

2) OK. Your business on the 90 days, I don't get it, whatever.

But how about at least not really seeing it as day 12, 13, 14, 15, etc. Imagine that you are counting backwards from your last day on this wierd planet. Say youve got another 23,725 days (another 65 years). Tomorrow morning you can count like this: "that's 23,724 days I have left to enjoy being clean!" Then Shabbos morning, "that's 23,723 days I've got to enjoy being clean!". And just appreciate each day.

Think of it. If you ever get to a meeting and state your "sobriety date" this way you'll get some eyes popping out, then some heads scratching...(like bilbo saying goodbye to the admirable hobbits, if you take my meaning)

But I'm serious. It'd probably work for you, Batguy.

considering my previous record is like 24, I want to prove to myself I can get 90. It's a challenge, and I'm a competitive guy. Don't worry, I'll resume not counting with day 91.imtrying25 wrote on 18 Dec 2009 00:15:

Hey Batman,

I'm totally new to this site, and just hoping, but I read your original thread, and I see that you are a person who has an extraordinary nisayon. Your yetzer hara had you fully entrenched way before your Yetzer Tov ever came on the scene! Every day that you accomplish is a huge kiddush Ha-shem and when you hit double digits, the angels must be dancing!!

Who knows 10? I know 10! 10 are the days that Batman has been kadosh!!!

Keep it up,

Haba

I'm surprised you even found it. You must have read every thread ever or something. BTW, I didn't include a lot of details about my personal life there.

OK,

Here we are at one week clean. I ALMOST ALMOST fell tonight. Almost. Almost. But didn't.

I would call it slipping. I read an article that mentioned certain kinds of things that go on in Nevada (which needs to fall into the ocean with California). Well, I like to know stuff so I looked it up and read up on it a bit. Nothing "wrong" per say, but it could have easily led to other things. Saw some pictures that weren't exactly the cleanest but no nudity, and I didn't stare at them or anything.

Here's the Cliff's Notes of what I read.

Ready?

SAD AND DISGUSTING.

There.

Maybe I'll elaborate a smidge sometime later. Probably in my other thread, "The Other Side", in the Break Free section. Maybe.

One week. Still clean. Moving forward.

Hey Batman,

Sorry if that was too outright, it is actually from your very first post, and if you feel it is too personal you probably can delete it or whatever..

I totally know the feeling of reading something and then suddenly you say, "Oh let me see what she looks like" or "That sounds so interesting, let me google it..." Unfortunately usually the things we go to google are not laws of physics or local chessed oppurtunities, and I can totally relate to the nisayon of once you check into it you start a chain websites that goes down fast, so kudos to you for slippin but not fallin!

Love your cliff notes!!
