

Bruce's Battle

OK guys, it took me a little while but I'm finally up on this part of the forum. Most of you probably know who I am by now, so I won't repeat my story. You can find that and a bunch of other stuff at my original thread here: rehab-my-site.com/guardureyes/forum/index.php?topic=503.0

I will be posting my progress towards 90 clean days almost every day here. Updates will be right before I go to sleep, once the day's victory is secure, or the next morning.

This thread is really for myself. I don't care if no one reads it. It's here to keep me accountable and to help me get there.

So far I have been clean for 4 days. Today will hopefully be number 5.

Dear Eb Bruce

Do you really have to fix the internet?

How much time can you delay this possible temptation?

Maybe we can use our YH of laziness for some useful things?

Taking control, by deliberately putting it off is a way to gain strength.

The truth is - I don't need the net for as much as I think

Keep up the good work!

We created a new "automated" 90 Day Wall of Honor chart to make it easier for everyone (it is still under construction, but it is already functional).

From now on, you can update yourself manually. The chart automatically keeps track of how many days you are clean and what Level you are on, each time you update.

Here are the RULES for the new chart:

- You must update yourself at least once a week.
- If you do not update yourself for over a week, your name becomes RED.
- If you do not update for two weeks, your name falls off the chart.

(Even if you fall off the chart, your name remains in our database, so you can choose to go back on the chart by logging in with your username and password and pressing "edit profile" and then selecting "Put me on the chart").

To update yourself, click here to Login.

Type in your username: BruceWayne

The password for everyone on the chart is currently: GYE

(you can change your password by clicking "edit your profile" at the bottom)

To update the chart, choose "Still Clean" and then press "Update Chart"

We hope you enjoy this new feature. It is one of many new features that we are working on.

Please send us any remarks about the new system, or if you think something should be different or that we should add/change anything.

Keep strong!

Chaim,

I live in house with other guys. I'm not taking the initiative to fix it. I'm leaving that to the guys in charge (I've only been there a few weeks)

Story time:

Thursday night (I think) I plugged in my phone to charge it. The outlet is right next to my bed. After I plugged it in I decided to just lie down there on my bed for a few minutes cause I was pretty tired. A few minutes later I heard something and it turned out that the phone charger had fallen out of the socket.

How annoying.

So when I reached down to get it I saw something move under the edge of the rug that my bed is on (the edge was turned up a bit). Turns out it was a nasty looking spider. So if my charger hadn't "randomly" fallen out then I never would have found that spider. I could could have made a good midnight snack for that guy.

I don't know if it was poisonous, but I didn't want him to stick around so I could find out.

Perhaps my internet didn't "randomly" go out either.

I'll let you guys decide. I don't know.

BTW, 9.

When we "want" to start seeing Hashem in our lives more, He tends to start to "randomly" show up more :D

Bruce,

I hope that the only web that gives you any trouble is the one produced by that spider! ;D

Guard,

That may be because we can always see what we want to see.

But, I'm playing Devil's Advocate again and that's not the point.

The point is: 10.
