

ToAdd A journal

Posted by ToAdd - 29 Oct 2010 05:37

Today is the first day of a new journey.

Hashem, I have come to realise how weak I am in this area.

With tears in my eyes, I place myself in your loving hands.

Please don't turn away from me. Help me return to you.

Your servant.

Yosef.

Like Yonah, I just feel like running away from my mission.

For Yonah, the sea calmed down - for me, I'm still in the turbulent waters.

Yonah sought comfort as I do, in the wrong things.

Is the sea a sea of embarassment? Do I need my friends to toss me into it for me to wake up, to calm the storm?

NO!

I am on the GYE boat and my fellow sailors have turned this ship around.

I am heading for dry land where I can carry out my mission.

Where we can carry out our missions!

I am alive!

As long as the lechaim doesn't include a worm - The kikayon won't like that.

Shanah Tova to everyone.

After reading the chapter on truth in the ways of the tzadikim, I have been thinking about the following:

Hashem is truth.

Our soul is true.

by thinking things that aren't real, I am distancing myself from the truth and thus Hashem.

One cannot be true to himself by following fantasies he has invented in his own mind.

This is what I am going to work on now.

Instead of just waiting for the images to dissipate from my mind, when my mind turns to old images I am going to focus on what is true and real around me

(bli neder). I am sitting in an office, a place of work...

On another note, this is the first time I know of that tornadoes have hit our country. Wow.

Thanks Dov.

I wonder is Kansas has a special gamatria or something...

Speaking of Kansas...

May Hashem open your mind to the Truth

May Hashem open your heart to the Truth

May Hashem give you the courage to face it.
