

The life of a soldier in hashems army

Posted by mnman415 - 16 Nov 2010 03:54

my last thread was called starting over after 37 days and the one before that was called this time im in it to win it.

very quickly. im 16. got into this at 11 years old. always said ill stop after my bar mitzvah. in 8th grade i talked to girls. in summer going into 9th i decided to stop talking to them because i felt guilty about m. skipping ahead. here i am now as an addict. a teenage addict trying to get close to hashem.

the only way i can do it is with his help, without hashem i am helpless.

so here is what we are doing. we are DAVENING 3 times a day. not saying the words but talking to hashem. if possible, talk to hashem often.

filling my day with as much torah as possible.and maintining kedusha. thursday nights i will try to exercise to get rid of some extra hormone buildup. and get rid of sexual energy.

there is so much more to do, but this is the main outline.

today was day 1. it was good, i was careful with my eyes. i learned a lot. i feel really good. i just decided. by next schoolyear, going into 12th grade, i WILL know how to learn. im still pushing myself in shiur. but out of shiur, i am taking a jastrow (dictionary) and learning torah. i am learning the entire masechta bekiyus that we are doing in school. we are only going to cover 20 or so dafim of gemorah so i am doing thr whole thing. over the vacations when i have more time i will try to learn how to learn be'iyun. but i first need to get down the basics.

anyways. i feel really pumped to keep going and really make it to 90 days this time. and with hashems help and only with his help will i be able to make it.

HS here is a suggestion maybe from left field pick up the sefer ohr avigdor its Reb Avigdor Miller on chovos halevovos. So far they only have one volume on the into to Chovos Halevovos. But its a priceless sefer and will give you a perspective on what it means to really live life. Ten minutes a day will do you (and all of us wonders). Hatzlocha UAJ- i will try. my day is very busy and i dont know where i can find the sefer.

i got through a daf and a half so far by myself! i feel really good. wow! in shiur, we are doing pesachim until daf tes (9) and then skipping to second perek. actually im either on yud amud aleph or bais. again, my davening is better. ive been doing pretty good in the aseï tov part. now, im also trying to put extra effort into my sur mei'rah to make it exceptionally better.

but how does one work on guarding his eyes? is the only way to work on it, during the situation?
that is what i am working on now. shemiras eynaim. thats one of the main issues. anyone have any advice how to work on it?

HS, one piece of advice is what you gave yourself!, strengthening aseï tov is one of the best ways to help the sur mera. find topics of Torah that you enjoy and feel engaged in. learn those, let them occupy your mind. they don't necessarily have to be hard topics.

keep up your great work!

thank you ZS. its very good advice when i think of it.

last night as i was going to sleep i got a text from someone i used to talk to. the only thing ill say is that had i responded anything, even if i said no, it would have resulted in a fall. there is no doubt in my mind. i just went to sleep. this morning, i woke up and i still had the text and i could have still responded or saved it for tonight, i deleted it right away, so now i dont have her number.

today is day three. i have a chazaka now, now i need to strengthen the chazaka more and more and more. still pushing in my aseï tov and also trying in my sur merah, but as ZS said, the aseï tov help the sur merah.

good night everyone

YOU ARE SO LUCKY TO BE DOING THIS WHILE YOU ARE STILL SO YOUNG!

(I wish I had GYE 20 years ago)

Good luck to you,
