

The life of a soldier in hashems army

Posted by mnman415 - 16 Nov 2010 03:54

my last thread was called starting over after 37 days and the one before that was called this time im in it to win it.

very quickly. im 16. got into this at 11 years old. always said ill stop after my bar mitzvah. in 8th grade i talked to girls. in summer going into 9th i decided to stop talking to them because i felt guilty about m. skipping ahead. here i am now as an addict. a teenage addict trying to get close to hashem.

the only way i can do it is with his help, without hashem i am helpless.

so here is what we are doing. we are DAVENING 3 times a day. not saying the words but talking to hashem. if possible, talk to hashem often.

filling my day with as much torah as possible.and maintining kedusha. thursday nights i will try to exercise to get rid of some extra hormone buildup. and get rid of sexual energy.

there is so much more to do, but this is the main outline.

today was day 1. it was good, i was careful with my eyes. i learned a lot. i feel really good. i just decided. by next schoolyear, going into 12th grade, i WILL know how to learn. im still pushing myself in shiur. but out of shiur, i am taking a jastrow (dictionary) and learning torah. i am learning the entire masechta bekiyus that we are doing in school. we are only going to cover 20 or so dafim of gemorah so i am doing thr whole thing. over the vacations when i have more time i will try to learn how to learn be'iyun. but i first need to get down the basics.

anyways. i feel really pumped to keep going and really make it to 90 days this time. and with hashems help and only with his help will i be able to make it.

this shabbas was a success for me. for the most part i had good shmiras einaim. barditchevs cosin was here. i dont remember the name but a bardichever rav was here.

we are now within 30 days of purim gadol, so no matter how machmer or mekel you were with purim katan we have the soncept of involving ourselves with torah and concepts of a chag 30 dasy before the chag. you cNT LEARN MUCH ABOUT HAPPINESS so the only way for us to prepare for purim is to be happy and wortk on our happiness now!

gut voch!

Keep on rocking, man!

Actually, we can learn a lot about happiness...but I'd start with this - the key to true happiness is feeling satisfaction, feeling growth, feeling close to hashem. Focus on that, and feel happy about it!

silent, i see what you meen. this isnt a gye issue but i just spent a bunch of time binding book and it took a lot of time and effort. but now after the fact i feel proud and satisfied.

i now need to look at myself and feel accomplishment. i used to have falls at least once every single day and look at every single lady on the street. aspecially once i actually started talking to girls it all went (more) downhill. (the only thing is that i didnt have sex) so now im looking back. i b'h only fall once in around 20 or 30 days. i control my eyes more or less on the street. and much much much more improvment has bbeen done. so im just taking this time to take a satisfied (and happy) look at the past years of my life and how close im getting to hakadosh baruch hu.

thank you hashem for the path you aare guiding me on and help me continue growing!

my attitude is good, but i just had another fall. i really dont know what to do, i admit powerlessness to my moms work computer! i cant tell her though, shell be super mad. but whats more important? i think what ill do is send a text tommorow while im at school. im mad at her. she KNOWS i have these issues, why cant she get it through her head. why cant i be in a family that can be a place wehre spiritual growth IS possible. all my growth is my own. nothing to do with my parents. arg. im gona send her a text right now saying that i had looked on her computer and she really needs to log out when she leaves the computer.
