

The life of a soldier in hashems army

Posted by mnman415 - 16 Nov 2010 03:54

my last thread was called starting over after 37 days and the one before that was called this time im in it to win it.

very quickly. im 16. got into this at 11 years old. always said ill stop after my bar mitzvah. in 8th grade i talked to girls. in summer going into 9th i decided to stop talking to them because i felt guilty about m. skipping ahead. here i am now as an addict. a teenage addict trying to get close to hashem.

the only way i can do it is with his help, without hashem i am helpless.

so here is what we are doing. we are DAVENING 3 times a day. not saying the words but talking to hashem. if possible, talk to hashem often.

filling my day with as much torah as possible.and maintining kedusha. thursday nights i will try to exercise to get rid of some extra hormone buildup. and get rid of sexual energy.

there is so much more to do, but this is the main outline.

today was day 1. it was good, i was careful with my eyes. i learned a lot. i feel really good. i just decided. by next schoolyear, going into 12th grade, i WILL know how to learn. im still pushing myself in shiur. but out of shiur, i am taking a jastrow (dictionary) and learning torah. i am learning the entire masechta bekiyus that we are doing in school. we are only going to cover 20 or so dafim of gemorah so i am doing thr whole thing. over the vacations when i have more time i will try to learn how to learn be'iyun. but i first need to get down the basics.

anyways. i feel really pumped to keep going and really make it to 90 days this time. and with hashems help and only with his help will i be able to make it.

ditto to Reb Yosef.

How about not going on that computer? Is that an option, even if an inconvenient one?

here i am.

still clean.

i now have an accountability partner.

im still looking for yeshivos in israel. im looking at ziv hatorah, but i was told that its not the most serious place. does anyone know about it?

PM me about the yeshivos that yu are looking into and I'll be able to give you a rundown of them. I recently spent two years in Israel (not in the Mir) and many of my friends went to all the different yeshivas that are out there. I could probably help from an outsiders point of view.

shabbas was great.

im really looking for yeshivos. everytime i find a yeshiva i find out that its either not at my level or jsut not for me. its frustrating, but i know this is not good for the addiction. im trying to stay happy. when hashem wants me to find the place he will let me find the place.
