

The life of a soldier in hashems army

Posted by mnman415 - 16 Nov 2010 03:54

my last thread was called starting over after 37 days and the one before that was called this time im in it to win it.

very quickly. im 16. got into this at 11 years old. always said ill stop after my bar mitzvah. in 8th grade i talked to girls. in summer going into 9th i decided to stop talking to them because i felt guilty about m. skipping ahead. here i am now as an addict. a teenage addict trying to get close to hashem.

the only way i can do it is with his help, without hashem i am helpless.

so here is what we are doing. we are DAVENING 3 times a day. not saying the words but talking to hashem. if possible, talk to hashem often.

filling my day with as much torah as possible.and maintining kedusha. thursday nights i will try to exercise to get rid of some extra hormone buildup. and get rid of sexual energy.

there is so much more to do, but this is the main outline.

today was day 1. it was good, i was careful with my eyes. i learned a lot. i feel really good. i just decided. by next schoolyear, going into 12th grade, i WILL know how to learn. im still pushing myself in shiur. but out of shiur, i am taking a jastrow (dictionary) and learning torah. i am learning the entire masechta bekivus that we are doing in school. we are only going to cover 20 or so dafim of gemorah so i am doing thr whole thing. over the vacations when i have more time i will try to learn how to learn be'iyun. but i first need to get down the basics.

anyways. i feel really pumped to keep going and really make it to 90 days this time. and with hashems help and only with his help will i be able to make it.

HS

Been there many times. It's a good feeling to come face to face with the reality that you have a private G-d who is focused 100% on you and helping you out. Only Hashem can do that: focus 100% only on each of all the pwople in the world. He does that.

You're doing great!

You make yourself mad.

Others just help you do it.

hi HS,

being tired can make any situation that much harder. and there is a mashal in the sefer Toras Avos for a bochur or yungerman who is very tired. it's like a house in the forest with no inhabitants, no window panes, no doors. anyone who wants can enter freely....

have a great shabbos

that is very teef

and true

a classic

you should print bumper stickers with that (when are we having bagels and coffee?)

thank you so much, but that one is way too short for me.

i want to write it on klaf in safrus and give it as a gift and that one would only take up one line.

You can also put each phrase on separate lines. The names of Haman take up a whole
