

Eye.nonymous (Elyah) official count

I'm new to this forum, but not new to this struggle. I signed up to the weekly E-mail lists a few months ago. I often just glance at them, as I'm trying not to spend so much time reading E-mails. But, even with this, I have gotten chizuk through the themes that keep repeating themselves.

I grew up secular, but did Teshuva in college--I came to Yeshiva in Israel and never left. Now I'm married with five children (our oldest is eight and our youngest is a month old).

I was in the habit of staring at girls, I remember even in nursery school. I just liked the way they looked. Things got worse when I was 10 or 11. My sisters had a "facts of life" book with indecent pictures and crooked ideas, and I found it. It described Mast... as a fun thing to do, and so I followed the instructions. I've been stuck ever since.

I was a member of a shul youth group around the age of my bar-mitzvah. The youth group leader gained my trust very early on, and I could discuss anything with him. Luckily, I learned early on that mast... is wrong. I've been fighting it ever since, sometimes more successfully and sometimes less so. I think now I go two or three months clean, and then I tend to trip up a few times close together. I always feel that the yeitzer hara tricked me, and somehow it's strategy was different than last time. Also, I view it as tripping up for one "phase," instead of multiple times. So, I manage not to get too depressed about it, and can pick myself up again pretty quickly.

I would like to be able to stop altogether. But, I am more concerned with controlling my eyes. I feel that it is impossible to walk down the street without taking a look at every woman along the way. I think the trickiest part is that, in my neighborhood, everyone is dressed so tznius that it's hard to feel that I'm really doing anything wrong.

Besides that, I slip up every once in a while with the internet--probably a few times a year. But then, I feel that I was somehow outsmarted again by my Yeitzer. I wasn't looking for indecent pictures... I was just curious about such-and-such an actress... I wasn't expecting to find such indecent pictures...

I see the progress is still very slow on my own, and that's why I decided to become more involved in this forum.

But, I find this is also a challenge. I think my own situation is rather mild, and I find that by seeing other people's stories which are more involved than my own, I end up getting thoughts instead of getting rid of them. Any advice on this point would also be helpful. Thanks.

Wow, I just became a hero member.

I'm on day 72.

In line with the 12 steps, I'm admitting to myself that I don't have a sore throat. No. I'M SICK!!!

I stayed home this morning to watch the sick kids so my wife could go to her parenting class (which she doesn't usually get to go to because the kids are sick. Last time SHE was sick). I realized--I really ought to be home anyways. I managed to get the kids to nap and I napped too.

you are really hero, think that hit the 90 will give us great Chizuk, that we can too. (and the opposite ...)

so, you don't have any other chance, right?

behazlacha, holy guy. 8)

Refu'ah shelemiah...keep trucking, indeed! Keep your eyes on the road, your hands upon the wheel....

By the way, is the line "never let your guard down" an original from you?

Keep on rocking!

And nothing to be embarassed about, it's a great line! I'm actually thinking about writing a song, using your line (if you let)...it's also my gmail status message, occasionally...

Eye,

Keep feeling better, and enjoy the kumzitz. Wish I was there in EY with you, and not just for the Kumzitz.
