

Its now or never!

Hello, I'm 24 years old guy from Brazil. I converted this year (February) to Judaism (conservative movement), but Beezrat Hashem next year I will convert in Orthodox in Jerusalem! I receive emails from Chizuk list just over one year. However, in my country the nastiness and the open exhibition of sexuality have made my journey to be a shomer brit very very difficult. I decided that I need to join a group and exchange experiences, for I think it will help me to resist temptation. I do not speak English very well, but I hope to count on the help of community members so that I can resist temptation. I really want to serve Hashem and fulfill His commandments. I really want to be a shomer HaBrit, and I believe that with your help and Hashem's help I'll make it !!!!!

Hello, today is my sixth day clean.

Last night the Y"H tried to make me have a wet dream about 3 times in a row. Every time I wake up and make sure I was clean.

What can I do to prevent these "bad dreams"?

Please help me, I do not want to sin anymore.

Thanks

Thiago

B"H

I'm in my 9 day clean. I'm proud of my advance.

I improved my Avodat Hashem, in terms of prayers and study of Torah and Halacha.

I think the reason I have difficulty in past nights was that I did not make the prayer before sleep.

But today is ok!

Dear friends,

Today I hit level 3! I'm 15 days clean! I'm happy with my performance, however, I'm scared because I fear that some of the initial motivation is gone, Chaz vshalom.

My biggest factor of Chizuk for me was to communicate with you, I feel that since I started sharing my experience, I started to feel stronger.

I thank all the friends who helped me with his words.

It is very important to share experiences.

Feel free to share your experiences with me.

I reach 30 days!

Its obvious that wasnt easy. I almost fall sometimes...I get myself watching somethings in internet in my work office that I'm not supposed to watch, sure, was an accident, and I quitted. Its a litte complicated to realize when we have a slip and when we have a fall...

But I want to change and B"H I will never give up!

thanks for everything

great to hear!

keep on working and growing don't forget to thank Hashem for the good times as well as reach out to Him during the tough times (talking to myself more than to you) have a great shabbos
