

TEST OUR NEW FORUM

Posted by the.guard - 02 Jul 2012 14:51

BIG NEWS: We hope to launch a new forum system in the coming days at www.guardyoureyes.com/forum/index

Besides being more advanced than this one, the main benefit is that people signing up to our website as members will automatically be able to use the forum without having to sign up in a separate place. (We are looking to unify everything under one sign-up, including the 90-day chart, chizuk e-mails, etc.)

Before we launch, I'd like to ask some guys here to test it out and write to each other back and forth, and test the new PM system as well... Keep in mind that the current posts are from a long time ago, it is not up to date.

Keep in mind as well, that whatever you post there will be lost when we make the final migration from SMF to the new forum.

Only members of the website can post on the forum, so if you want to test it and haven't yet signed up, sign up here: www.guardyoureyes.com/register

Please post your comments, bugs, etc... below in this thread...

Thank you!

If you have any questions follow this link: docs.kunena.org/index.php/Category:FAQ

I'm sure it will be great when it is fully operational.

Has this been migrated yet?

It looks like other users have all their old stats. How would I do that?

It looks like they took a snapshot of the site from a few months back and threw it on there for testing. When they go live they will move it all over in real time.

No, I mean that it looks like some testers have their old stats.

I got in to the system, called the # to register for the chatroom and got no-where by pressing 5.

Most of the site is too big and spread out. It's hard to use on an iphone.

The font when typing a reply to a PM is teeny. And I really want to be able to view PM conversations as threads.

The User list says on top that there are 668 users, but there are only 124 on the list. The list also shows both the user's display name and their username that they originally signed up with. Sometimes someone changes their name for a reason and they don't want their original name seen.

Tried to get on the chatroom (which still doesn't work properly on MSIE). Called the hotline and ext. 5 does not exist, just goes back to the main menu.

By default when you reply to a PM it deletes the original message unless you clear the Sorry Gevura, but forget MSIE and use a real browser like Chrome or Firefox. I used the chatroom on Firefox 11 last night.

is there not an equivalent of the "show new replies to your posts"?
checkbox on the bottom >
wouldn't it be smarter to have that option instead of the "no replies" option?
why would i want to see which topics have no replies?

We find that the yidden complained about the monn twice, once at the beggining of the 40 years in the desert (bilti el hamonn eineinu) and once at the very end (venafshenu katzta balechem haklokeil).

Why did they complain only at these two instances?

the generation that left mitzrayim were accustomed to eating regular food and when they were put on a monn-diet they complained that it did not satisfy them because it did not look like food, even though it tasted like food it was missing the visual satisfaction (bilti el hamonn eineinu).

The generation who grew up in the desert never ate regular food and had no reason to complain. The generation at the end of the 40 years had to travel past the land of Edom and saw people eating regular food and therefore they complained as well.

Chasam Sofer

this shows the importance of guarding ones eyes

This also shows that people complain when they have to use new things but in the end they get used to it and are happy.

I can't believe I was so negative about the new forum in 2012. I love it now!

I just tried it the first time and I wasn't used to it. I think give it a few weeks and if possible then update in whilst in use.
