Good News Chevra! We have a Chanukah present for y'all!

After many months of work, we are finally ready to move to our NEW forum on the GuardYourEyes.com server! That is why we locked this forum now, so we can migrate everything to the new forum... By Chanukah (Motzai Shabbos), you should be able to already use the new forum (we will publicize the URL at that time).

Why is this good news?

- The new forum has more features and is more cutting-edge.
- New members will no longer be required to sign up for the website and forum seperately. From now on, whoever is a member of the website will have automatic access to the forum!
- The new chatrooms work in conjunction with the GYE website as well, and they appear on the bottom of the page. That means that if anyone is online on the forum, you will also see them online in the chatrooms and be able to chat in real time (both privately and in public chatrooms, where you can invite multiple members). See this page for info on how to be approved for the chatrooms

Some important notes:

- Being a member of this forum will not automatically allow you access to the new forum. Anyone who hasn't signed up yet is going to have to register with our new website over here.
- We will be migrating all the posts from this forum to the new one, so nothing will be lost.
- We would like to have your feedback on the new forum. Please let us know if you are happy with it. If there are any features that you are used to on this forum that the new forum doesn't have, don't hesitate to let us know.
