

NO MORE SPAMMERS

I just figured out how to prevent spammers from posting on the forum. Now, every time a new member signs up I have to confirm their membership. So there will never be any more spam posts IY"H!

Today I went to the admin section of the forum and saw 11 spammers waiting to be confirmed. I rejected them all and the Satan went flying. I think that's a reason to DANCE.

I was wondering what happened. I use to wipe away about 6 or more everyday. I was trying to figure out why there were no more new names like " mcrrrrnseyysmnnccrrrrnd".

How do you know which people are spammers? If you are judging by user name, they may start using names that look like ours to fool you. It's another great step though!
