

Help save a life!

Posted by the.guard - 11 Aug 2014 14:48

Someone who struggles with SSA turned to us for help. He doesn't have any money and he feels that he desperately needs a therapist to help him deal with his struggles. We have a good therapist for him that costs $100/H. He feels that he only needs about 5-6 hours with the therapist.

Perhaps someone would like to help sponsor this?

Please donate at guardyoureyes.com/donate and write in the field that the donation is to help pay for the SSA therapist.
