This Rosh Hashonnah give yourself Life's Greatest Gift

This Rosh Hashonnah you have the opportunity to give yourself the gift of a life of freedom, by joining one of our new "Reaching New Heights" support groups.

Over the past year at Guard Your Eyes, we have developed and implemented the "Reaching New Heights" program which utilizes an entirely new and highly effective concept in meditation and internalizing healthy life experiences. This will enable you to acquire and sustain a lasting achievement in personal freedom from your unwanted sexual drives.

These support groups are led by two of our amazing "master mentors". In a short period of time, you will be guided through this most liberating life changing experience and achieve unimaginable new heights of personal freedom. In just 10 sessions our master mentors, Israel and Everton, will each be leading their own support groups, guiding you through your road to freedom.

It's anonymous, free of charge and it's your gift of life to yourself for this Rosh Hashonnah.
