Greetings to all,

After a frank discussion lately with a well experienced GYE member, we have established that I should be going to SA. I received the list with a the zoom links and schedules of SA meetings worldwide, however, Lechatchila i am looking for a group where I can find other frum yidden (nothing against secular jews and goyim, would just rather a group with a few others like me who I can really connect and relate to).

Thank you everyone!

Depending on where you live, the local meeting will likely have many other frum people. You can PM me if you want help finding a local one.

Thank you! I asked my therapist (Frum guy) if I should start going to these meetings. He told me he doesn't think it's necessary for me based on where I'm holding at the moment... though I may circle back on this in the future. Thank you
